Property Overview

Rare opportunities like this don't come often. Finding a pristine 30-acre tract in rapidly growing Lakeland, Florida, is already challenging, but this Moore Road property offers something truly exceptional. Surrounded by land permanently protected from development through conservation easements, your peaceful views are guaranteed forever. The easement allows for constructing a home and farm buildings, so you can enjoy watching native wildlife and breathtaking sunrises and sunsets. Whether you dream of raising livestock, cultivating crops, or simply enjoying a rural lifestyle, this property is ideal. And despite the tranquil setting, you're just minutes from major shopping, Publix, and a regional hospital, with Tampa and Orlando International airports about an hour away. The property is fenced and cross-fenced with barbed wire and has a permitted 6" well. The well does not currently have a pump or power unit. Owner is motivated to sell.
