

Build a Legacy Together

6 Arizona Parcels with Space to Grow & Share APNs: 201-28-122, 123, 124, 071, 072, 073

Overview:

Unlock 6 adjoining parcels in Apache County, Arizona—perfect for families, friends, or long-term visionaries. These 6.27 acres offer the ideal setup for RVing, camping, building, or holding for the future. With no HOA and no timeline to build, you can design your legacy at your own pace.

Land Use & Utilities:

Zoned Agricultural Residential (AR), each lot allows a single-family home, mobile home, or manufactured dwelling. RV use is allowed 30 days/year without a permit, or longer with septic installed. Power is nearby and access is via well-maintained county roads.

Sustainable Living:

With open space, level terrain, and a peaceful setting, this land is ideal for permaculture, solar living, and multi-family retreats. Whether you build one home or several, this property supports a legacy lifestyle.

Recreation & Wilderness:

Surrounded by lakes, forests, and fresh air, this region is a hidden gem for outdoorsmen. Explore Lyman Lake, Petrified Forest National Park, and Apache-Sitgreaves National Forest—plus dozens of nearby trails and lakes for hiking, boating, and wildlife watching.
