Property Overview

Property is a 298.5 acre turnkey cattle pasture with infrastructure in place for conversion to farming, sod or other agricultural uses. An adjacent 300 ± acre parcel with additional Oslo Rd frontage is also available. The property is in the path of growth just 2.5 miles west of the I-95-Oslo Rd interchange under construction.

Property has a 14" well and access to the St. Johns Improvement District expansive road, drainage and irrigation infrastructure including 1,900 acres of reservoir. The property's location near the future interchange provides easy access and an ideal location for sod, vegetables, nursery stock and other commodities requiring transportation. While outside of the Urban Service Area, the Indian River County Commission recently expanded the urban service area along Oslo Rd to west of I-95 in preparation for future growth in the area.

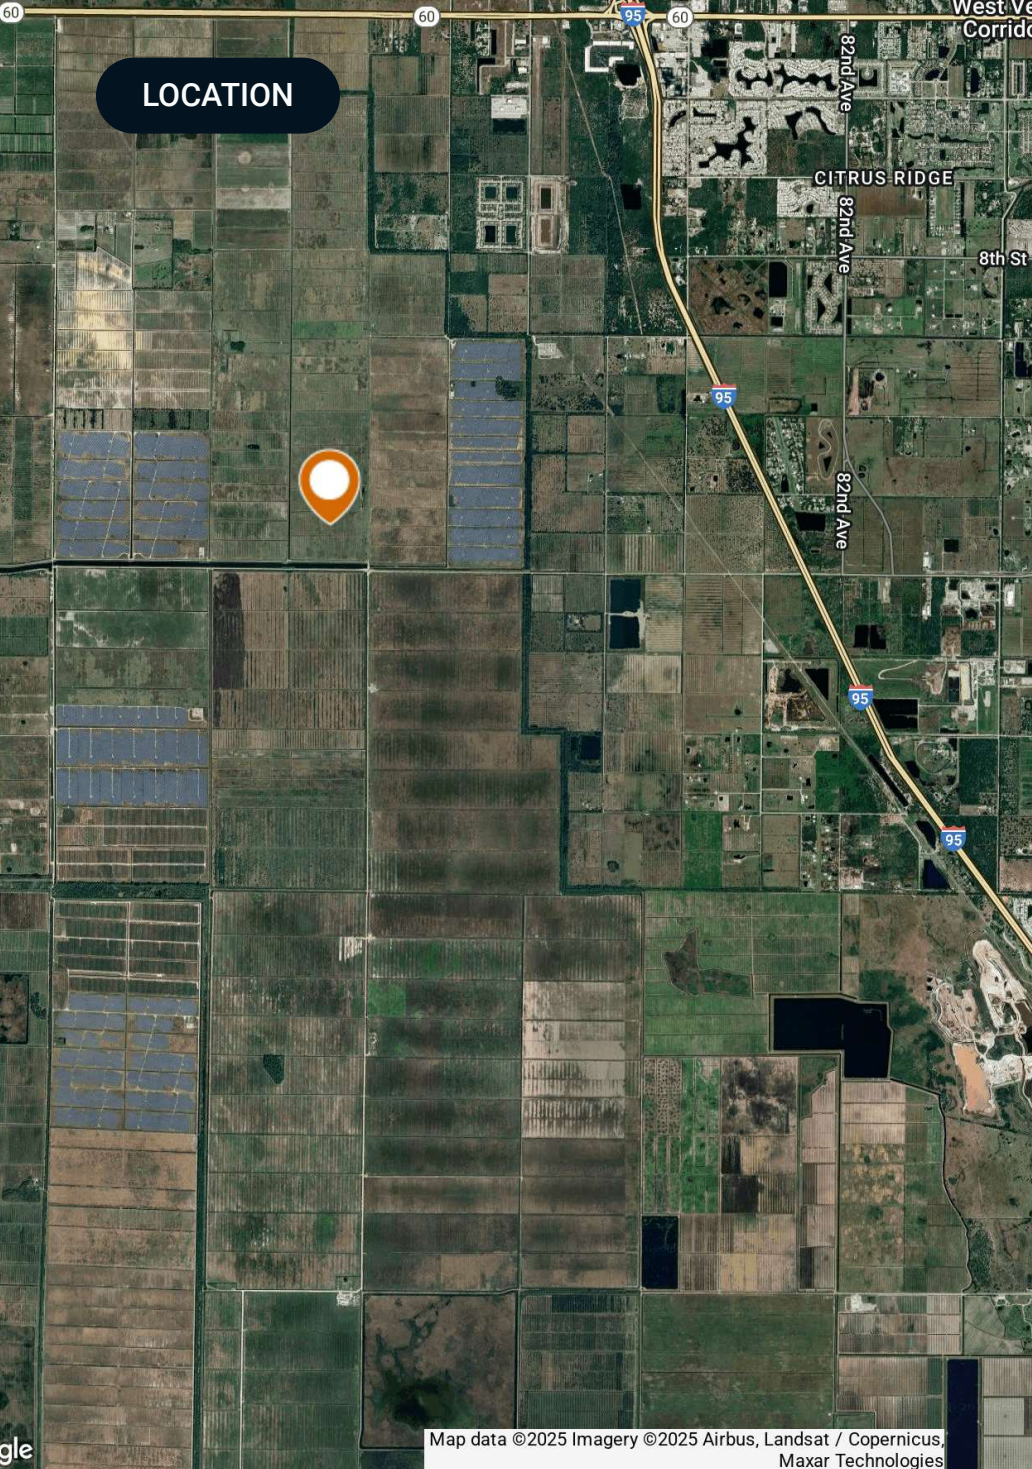

The property is fenced and cross fenced for cattle, has a cattle lease in place and retains an agricultural exemption.
