WELCOME TO THE MISSISSIPPI 1,004.52

WELCOME TO THE MISSISSIPPI 1,004.52, LOCATED JUST 12± MILES SOUTHEAST OF BLYTHEVILLE, ARKANSAS, ALONG THE BANKS OF THE MIGHTY MISSISSIPPI RIVER. This 1,004.52± acre recreational farm, in Mississippi County, Arkansas, features approximately 630 acres of game-rich bottomland timber, with the balance made up of Mississippi River sandbar, perfect for your summertime adventures. Of the 630± acres, 471.10± were enrolled in the Wetland Reserve Program (WRP) in 2001, offering a strong conservation foundation and outstanding wildlife habitat. If you're searching for an established, privately owned farm in the Mississippi River Bottom, the Mississippi 1,004.52 deserves a spot on your list!

As you make your way through the thousands of acres of surrounding farmland, you'll immediately recognize the seclusion and remoteness of a big-buck tract. Upon arrival, follow the woods road back to the gated entrance, and welcome to the Mississippi 1,004.52. Inside, you'll find established wildlife plots, many of which are outfitted with Redneck blinds and feeders. The rifle plots offer excellent visibility and longer-range shot opportunities, while the diverse timber, ranging from thick cover to open bottoms and rolling ridges, creates exceptional bowhunting setups. The Mississippi River Bottom is renowned for producing trophy whitetails, and this property is no exception. In recent years, deer have been harvested here measuring well over 150 inches.
