

Department of Environment and Conservation, and whether the property is located within a Planned Unit Development as defined by Tenn. Code Ann. § 66-5-213 and, if requested, provide buyers with a copy of the development's restrictive covenants, homeowner bylaws and master deed. Sellers must also disclose if they have knowledge that the residence has ever been moved from an existing foundation to another foundation.

The Buyers and Sellers involved in the current or prospective real estate transaction for the property listed above acknowledge that they were informed of their rights and obligations regarding Residential Property Disclosures, and that this information was provided by the real estate licensee(s) prior to the completion or reviewing of a Tennessee Residential Property Condition Disclosure, a Tennessee Residential Property Condition Disclaimer Statement, or a Tennessee Residential Property Condition Exemption. Buyers and Sellers also acknowledge that they were advised to seek the advice of an attorney on any legal questions they may have regarding this information or prior to taking any legal actions.

The Tennessee Residential Property Disclosure Act states that anyone transferring title to residential real property must provide information about the condition of the property. This completed form constitutes that disclosure by the Seller. The information contained in the disclosure is the representation of the owner and not the representation of the real estate licensee or sales person, if any. This is not a warranty or a substitute for any professional inspections or warranties that the purchasers may wish to obtain.

Buyers and Sellers should be aware that any sales agreement executed between the parties shall supersede this form as to the terms of sale, property included in the sale and any obligations on the part of the seller to repair items identified below and/or the obligation of the buyer to accept such items "as is."

The undersigned Seller of the property described as 6730 Standifer Gap Rd Chattanooga TN 37421 does hereby notify Buyer that said property is being offered without a Residential Property Condition Disclosure Statement as provided by the Tennessee Residential Property Disclosure Act. This transfer is excluded under Tenn. Code Ann. § 66-5-209 for the following reason(s):

- ☐ This is a transfer pursuant to court order including, but not limited to, transfers ordered by a court in the administration of an estate, transfers pursuant to a writ of execution, transfers by foreclosure sale, transfers by a trustee in a bankruptcy, transfers by eminent domain and transfers resulting from a decree of specific performance.
- ☐ This is a transfer to a beneficiary of a deed of trust by a trustor or successor in interest who is in default; transfers by a trustee under a deed of trust pursuant to a foreclosure sale, or transfers by a beneficiary under a deed of trust who has acquired the real property at a sale conducted pursuant to a foreclosure sale under a deed of trust or has acquired the real property by a deed in lieu of foreclosure.
- ☐ This is a transfer by a fiduciary in the course of the administration of a decedent's estate, guardianship, conservatorship or trust.
- ☐ This is a transfer from one (1) or more co-owners solely to one (1) or more co-owners. This provision is intended to apply and only does apply in situations where ownership is by a tenancy by the entirety, a joint tenancy or a tenancy in common and the transfer shall be made from one (1) or more of the owners to another owner or co-owners holding property either as a joint tenancy, tenancy in common or tenancy by the entirety.
- ☐ This is a transfer made by virtue of the record owner's failure to pay federal, state or local taxes.
- ☐ This is a transfer between spouses resulting from a decree of divorce or a property settlement stipulation.
- ☐ This is a transfer made solely to any combination of a spouse or a person or persons in the lineal line of consanguinity of one (1) or more of the transferors.
- ☐ This is a transfer to or from any governmental entity of public or quasi-public housing authority or agency.
- ☐ This is a transfer involving the first sale of a dwelling provided that the builder offers a written warranty.
- ☐ This is a transfer of any property sold at public auction.
- ☒ This is a transfer of any property where the owner has not resided on the property at any time within three (3) years prior to the date of transfer.
- ☐ This is a transfer from a debtor in a chapter 7 or a chapter 13 bankruptcy to a creditor or third party by a deed in lieu of foreclosure or by a quitclaim deed.

Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 66-5-212, Sellers are required to disclose, in writing, the presence of any known exterior injection well on the Property, whether the Sellers have knowledge that any single family residence on the Property has ever been moved from an existing foundation to another foundation, whether the Sellers have knowledge of any percolation tests or soil absorption rates performed on the Property that are determined or accepted by the Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation and the results of said tests and/or rates, and the presence of any known sinkholes. Sellers, pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 66-5-213, are also required to disclose in writing if the Property is located in a Planned Unit Development and upon request, provide buyers with a copy of the development's restrictive covenants, homeowner bylaws and master deed.
