WELCOME TO THE DECATUR 158.51

WELCOME TO THE DECATUR 158.51, A DIVERSE AND PRODUCTIVE FARM LOCATED IN DECATURVILLE, IN DECATUR COUNTY, TENNESSEE. This well-rounded 158.51± acre property offers a strong combination of tillable cropland, recently harvested timberland, and a meandering stream, providing both agricultural income potential and outstanding wildlife habitat. With extensive frontage along 3 Way Road, the Decatur 158.51 also offers excellent opportunities for future home sites or possible division.

This is a proven hunting property, featuring abundant food sources from planted fields and regenerating timber that create ideal conditions for deer and turkey. The property's location between Decaturville and Bath Springs, just minutes from the Tennessee River, adds convenience while expanding recreational options such as boating and fishing.

Rolling hills and scenic natural beauty define the landscape, with Greenwood Branch winding through the property to provide a reliable year-round water source for wildlife and an attractive natural feature. The versatile mix of land types makes this tract a rare opportunity for farming, hunting, or long-term investment in a highly desirable area.
